

Work Space

There are options available in most homes for where students do their work. Of particular concern when selecting a work space is the balance between quiet and the degree of supervision.

- Well lit space in a public area of the home
- Can be a dedicated space or sometimes the kitchen table works well
- Easily supervised area– not in a student’s bedroom
- No television as this can be quite distracting